

NAPAK TILAS: A LONG MARCH TO REMEMBER Y. M. BAPAK's JOURNEY on June 23 - 29, 2010 (tentative)

Napak Tilas (A Long March To Remember Y.M. Bapak's Journey) is an event organized by Subud Youth Indonesia, has an objective to also enhance brotherhood amongst Subud member in the world, especially for Subud youth. Hopefully it will become a yearly program. And this event is consequently also an opportunity to promote Indonesian art and cultural heritage.

Apart from Napak Tilas Y.M. Bapak, all participants will have opportunities to visit and enjoy Indonesian cultural heritage; such as; Javanese Royal Palace, Prambanan temple with famous Ramayana ballet, Borobudur temple and shopping district in Malioboro street. Moreover, participants can also experiencing old train excursions in Ambarawa and Solo and walking tour at Kasongan, a village which famous as earthenware production center. Last but not least, during your stay in Jogjakarta, there will be a game, take places in South Palace Square (Alun-alun Keraton). The nature of the game reflects the journey of human life, and simbolize the human difficulty to find the truth of life.

Video: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5nqSw2UjJrQ>

Email: napaktilas2010@gmail.com